

Final Presentation for “Where will science lead me in the future? ”

Congratulations on your acceptance to the OIST Science Challenge 2015.

At the end of the workshop, you will have the opportunity to present your ideas about a future in science to the OIST community. This final presentation is scheduled for 13th March from 9:30 to 12:00.

Please carefully review the guidelines for the final presentation, before the workshop, so that you can best prepare yourself to present your ideas!

1. Please make sure to include your name, major and a school in a title slide of your final presentation.
2. You will be given 5 minutes for the final presentation and 2 minutes for Q&A.
3. You will see the countdown timer in front of you (The timer is set for 7 minutes so please manage your presentation time accordingly)
4. When your time is up, the timer will beep!
5. Then, the speaker may thank audience and finish.
6. The criteria for the final presentations will be Passion for Science, Creativity, Originality, Persuasiveness, Articulation, Delivery (Clearly well rehearsed, appropriate speaking volume and speed) and Q & A. We will select the best presentation according to these criteria, and the winner will be recognized at the graduation ceremony.
7. The following will be provided at the presentation venue; wireless LAN, a PC and a pointer. Please visit our website below to see the venue.
